

主语是一句话

难题：谁是动作的发出者 | 主语从句

Level I

- 1. What they did was even more disgusting.
- 2. It's amazing what we think we can do in a short period of time.
- 3. It was unclear whether Anthony was the target or what led up to the killing.
- 4. It is no surprise that a Texas governor would support the development of Texas oil and gas.
- 5. Whoever had that story and didn't write it should be responsible.

Level II

- 1. It's unclear whether Pradhan or NSU could face criminal charges.
- 2. It's really unconscionable what they were doing with other people's money.
- 3. Whatever thoughts, feelings and longings they had in themselves could be played out in a band.

- 4. Whether that would be enough to quash the referendum depends on how many valid names remain.
- 5. And it was reported Saturday that the Atlanta Falcons had initial interest in talking to Lang but were no longer expected to do so.
- 6. What I do know is that Jim's closest buddy from Vietnam combat flew hundreds of miles to attend the big party I threw for Jim a couple months before his death.
- 7. Whichever message turns out to be nearer the truth will affect million of investors, from baby boomers to Millennials.
- 8. Republicans say it's essential that they repeal Obamacare because it's destroying the individual insurance market.
- 9. It's unfortunate, said spokeswoman Starlee Coleman, "that so few people in this country have access to medications that are being safely used in clinical trials but are years away from FDA approval."
- 10. What's unclear is whether Democrats have the candidates, and the message, to translate that money and national interest into electoral victories.
- 11. What's really needed, Caplan said, are advocates who can help patients figure out what clinical trials are available and help them apply.